

MURDER CHARGES FOR CAPTAIN LANCASTER IN SLAYING OF MIA MAMMIST

CAPT. HOLCOMBE LEGALLY CHIEF, COUNCIL IS TOLD

Mayson Rules Committee
Had No Right To Reconsider Action and Then Elect Lieutenant T. O.
Sturdivant to Post.

HOLCOMBE ABIDES BY FINAL ELECTION

Captain Not To Make Contest; Heated Argument Follows Murphy's Questioning of Gilliam.

Captain A. J. Holcombe was legally elected chief of the Atlanta police department Saturday by the police committee of council and is entitled to the post, a startled general council was told Monday afternoon in a ruling of City Attorney James L. May-son.

Mayson's opinion was sought by Alderman J. Charles Murphy, mayor pro-tem., who pointed out that under a statement by Ed A. Gilliam, member of the police committee, Holcombe was elected by a vote of three to two,
but this action was later reconsidered
and Detective Lieutenant T. O. Sturdivant was elected chief.

Although the question of who is legally the chief of police will be brought up on the floor of council at its next meeting, Captain Holcombe will not contest Sturdivant's position as chief, Holcombe said Monday afternoon. Councilman John A.
White, of the fourth ward, said that he was promised by Councilman Homer C. Foster, of the ninth ward, a member of the police committee, that the committee's records of Saturday's meeting and a written opinion by the city attorney will be offered at the next session of council.

"What the committee did prior to announcement of Mr. Sturdivant as chief is past history," Captain Holcombe said. "I was not notified that I had been elected chief, and I have no point to make. I am going to cooperate with the new chief and do all that is possible to give Atlanta the best service in its history."

Chief Sturdivant, who took office
Saturday following retirement of Chief James L. Beavers, had no comment to make.

Discussion of Sturdivant's election
as chief came up during consideration of an ordinance by Alderman Gilliam intended to abolish the detective department and create a plainclothes bureau with a captain directly under the orders of the chief. Gilliam denied that his paper had any political significance in relation to the trial of A. Lamar Poole, suspended first assistant chief of police and chief of detectives.

Gilliam's ordinance was tabled by a vote of 22 to 13. During debate

French Premier?

EDOUARD HERRIOT.

VOTE ADVANTAGE GAINED BY HERRIOT

French Coalition Govern- ment Headed by Radical Socialist Seems Likely.

PARIS, May 2.—(AP)—A liberal coalition government headed by the veteran statesman of the left, Edouard Herriot, tonight became a possibility for France on the face of radical socialist victories in Sunday's election.
The issue will not be decided until next Sunday, however, for less than one-third of the 615 seats of the chamber of deputies were filled on the first ballot; a second vote will be necessary on 361 seats, where no one candidate got a clear majority. Four colonial seats will not be filled until later in the year. A plurality will elect next Sunday.

The radical socialists emerged from the preliminary test with 63 seats,
the biggest solid bloc elected so far,
while the left republicans of Andre Tardieu, the present premier, lost heavily, placing only 37 candidates in the victory column.

M. Herriot was on the way to Paris tonight from Lyons to lead the campaign, which is expected by his radical socialist to emphasize in next Sunday's runoff election the movement to the left manifested in yesterday's preliminary balloting.

Influential newspapers like Le Temps and L'Information admitted yesterday's swing toward the radical socialist left, but Le Temps rejected this movement and did not go to the extreme of socialism or communism.
The strong position obtained by the radical socialists in the larger cities was generally attributed to unemployment among the working class.

Little change in the French foreign policy would be made by M. Herriot.
Far from resting on their oars, the radical socialists, immediately began a campaign to consolidate their victories, and bargain for withdrawals of the run-off.

The conservatives started similar maneuvers, determined not to give up before the battle actually was lost.

The election came to a final conclusion in 248 districts of the nation,
according to a tabulation of the ministry of the interior, which distributed
the seats as follows:
Conservatives 3
Republican democratic union 44
Independent republicans 23
Popular democrats 10
Left republicans 37
Left radicals 25
Radical socialists 63
Independent socialists 4
Republican socialists 5
Socialists 40

High Court Upholds Packers' Consent Ban

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—
Modification of the packers' consent decree to permit the packers to deal
at wholesale in groceries and other lines not related to the packing house industry today was rejected by the supreme court.

Under the ruling, the packers will be prohibited from continuing in their present lines of business and must comply with the terms of the consent decree which restrained their activities exclusively to meat and other slaughter-house products.

The opinion was handed down by Justice Cardozo.

It also asserted that there are "certain policies of the board of county
commissioners which result in burden-
ing all taxpayers and in unfair discrimination against employees of the city."

The league's statement was issued
from the office of the president, R.
C. Mize, in accordance, it was stated, with resolutions adopted by the board of directors on Thursday,
April 28.

"Conclusions," the statement says,
"have not been reached hastily. They are the result of serious deliberation
which prompts the league at this time
to make definite recommendations to the board."

CONGRESS PARDON URGED BY CRISP IN MASSIE CASE

Georgia Representative
Declares House and Senate Can Go Over Island Governor's Head.

BY GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.
WASHINGTON, May 2.—Condemning the recent verdict of the Honolulu territorial court in finding guilty of manslaughter the four American defendants in the "honour slay-ing" case, Representative Charles R.
Crisp, of Georgia, acting chairman of the powerful ways and means committee, today laid before the lower house a bill granting a complete pardon
to the four principals.

In offering the bill the Georgia congressman declared that "every red-blooded American should be justly aroused" over the verdict. Declaring that Lieutenant Thomas H. Massie, whose wife was the victim of a brutal assault and rape by a band of natives, was only technically guilty of taking the law into his own hands and wreaking vengeance on one of the perpetrators of the dastardly crime, Representative Crisp said he thought his co-defendants had received clemency at the hands of the court or jury.

The senate took only three minutes to approve a bill by Senator Hiram Bingham, republican, Connecticut, which would amend the present federal law under which defendants are freed from further liability to prosecution after two juries have been unable to agree on a verdict.

Bingham said he introduced the measure to prevent the alleged attackers of Mrs. Massie, in whose case one jury already has disagreed, from being freed in the event of a second hung jury.

Assistant Attorney-General Seth
W. Richardson, after an investigation of crime conditions in Hawaii, recommended such a change in the present law.

Congress, having delegated power to the governor of Hawaii to grant pardons in criminal cases, has a right to exercise that power itself, Congressman Crisp said, adding that the purpose of his bill of today was to assert that power.

The Hawaiian "honour slaying" case has attracted the attention of congress since the four defendants, including Mrs. Granville Fortescue, American society woman and mother of Mrs. Massie, were taken into custody by the Honolulu territorial authorities. Severe criticism has been directed at the navy department for even surrendering the defendants to the territorial courts.

Pratt, chief of naval operations, himself conditioned the action of Lieutenant Massie in the alleged slaying of one of the violators of his wife, declaring publicly that American naval men had

WASTE MUST STOP, LEAGUE DECLARES

Taxpayers' Group To Ad-

General Assembly.

The Taxpayers League declared Monday that "this waste of public money must stop, and to stop it the Taxpayers League will not hesitate to advocate candidates for the legislature who will vote for the measures necessary to bring about relief."

The assertion was made in a statement insisting that city and county governments immediately be placed on a sounder financial basis. The league declared itself "able to inform the voters of examples of extravagance which should be eliminated in the public interest."

It also asserted that there are "certain policies of the board of county
commissioners which result in burden-
ing all taxpayers and in unfair discrimination against employees of the
city."

The league's statement was issued
from the office of the president, R.

stated, with resolutions adopted by
the board of directors on Thursday,
April 28.

"have not been reached hastily. They
are the result of serious deliberation
which prompts the league at this time
to make definite recommendations to

3 Candidates To Vie For California Vote

South Carolina's 18 Democratic Delegates Believed Assured for Roosevelt As County Meetings Are Reported.

BALTIMORE, May 2.—(AP)—
President Hoover gradually drew further away from former Senator Joseph I. France in today's presidential primary as outlying sections of the state started to report their totals.

With 1,136 of the state's 1,364
voting places reported, the vote stood:
Hoover, 23,411.
France, 14,651.
Uninstructed, 1,215.

By the Associated Press.

California's 44 votes in the democratic national convention was the big prize dangling before Franklin D.
Roosevelt, Alfred E. Smith and Speaker Garner in today's presidential primaries and conventions.

Results in county democratic meetings in South Carolina yesterday indicated Roosevelt would be an easy winner of the 18 delegates to be selected there May 18.

Smith picked up Rhode Island's 10
delegates in a convention yesterday, which also came out for repeal or renewal of prohibition, but this delegation had been conceded the 1928 nominee and Roosevelt workers were confident California would add her 44 to the New York governor's present total of 279. Smith and Garner forces were equally confident.

The 10 in Rhode Island boosted Smith's delegates to 46 to place him third in the running. 12 delegates behind Senator Lewis, of Illinois.

Besides Rhode Island, Maryland
voters, in a presidential primary, selected delegates to state conventions which, in turn, will name 19 republicans and 18 democratic national delegates. The latter have been promised Governor Albert C. Ritchie. Voters in the republican preference primary choosing between President Hoover and former Senator Joseph I. France gave Mr. Hoover a substantial majority.

An Arkansas district meeting named today's delegates yesterday to complete the state's delegation of 15.
The two brought the Hoover-pledged and claimed delegate total to 703, with only 578 required for the nominal victory.

Today's voters, outside of California, will select 24 democratic delegates in Alabama and 10 in South Dakota, with most of the 34 conceded to Roosevelt.

Hoover was unopposed for his state's 47 delegates. The republicans also were selecting today 15 district delegates in Alabama, 11 in South Dakota and 11 in Mississippi, where a

Claims Filed for Backing

Abit Nix Enters.

BY R. E. POWELL.
Spirited bidding for the support of Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. and his organization among candidates for governor was the highest splash in the Georgia political waters Monday.

Outside of the jockeying for the
"their apparent" place there were few developments. Abit Nix, Athens lawyer, came to Atlanta on his way to St. Louis, called at the executive office and later mailed his check for $250 to Miss Stella Abit at Stavannah. He is the third man to qualify. H. B. Edwards and Eugene Tal-

the Russell organization, candidates announced for the legislature are hoping to be the dark horse of the

Musical Show's Tunes, Wit Make It First of Its Type To Win Pulitzer Award

NEW YORK, May 2.—(AP)—The catered tunes and "offbeat" satire of national politics of "Of Thee I Sing"
has made it the first musical comedy ever to win the Pulitzer prize for the best original American play of the year.

In the field of journalism, the $500
gold medal for the most distinguished and meritorious public service by an American newspaper during the year
was given to the Indianapolis News,
Walter Duranty, of the New York Times, and Charles G. Ross, of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, were given the $500 prize for the best example of the year.

Pearl S. Buck's novel, "The Good Earth," a best seller for months, won the $1,000 prize for best novel published by an American author.

These prizes were among 14 in the field of letters, journalism, music and art announced today by the trustees of Columbia University. They have a total value of $17,000.

Frankly terming the play award
"unusual," the advisory board gave the $1,000 which accompanied it to George S. Kaufman and Morrie Ry-

SENATE ADVANCES FEDERAL TAX RATE ON BASE FOR BEER

Theater Tickets, Radio and News Wires Also Feel Hand of Busy Revenue Seekers.

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.
WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—
The senate finance committee clung relentlessly to the trail of new revenue sources today and, in addition,
increased numerous levies imposed on the house tax bill.

Finding more taxes necessary, the committee hiked up the rate on brewers' wort—the basis of all beer—
down the exemption on the admission tax to make it include 50 cent movies, and broadened the telegraph and telephone schedule to include all leased wires, including those of newspapers and radio stations,
which were exempted by the house.

Senators Tydings, democrat, Maryland, convinced the committee the 10 per cent tax it had decided to impose on pari-mutuel racing tickets was unfair, so the senators switched this to an increased tax of 25 per cent on admissions to race tracks.

Decision Today.

With a decision expected tomorrow
on the controversial stock and bond sales levies, the committee experts estimated tonight that all in all the new senate revenue bill would raise
the billion dollars provided by the house measure to balance the 1933
budget.

The exemption on telephone and telegram messages was raised from 30 cents to 50 cents but the rates were fixed above those in the house bill. The new schedule would raise
the billion dollars provided by the
house measure to balance the 1933
budget.

The leased wire rate in the house bill was cut from 10 to 5 per cent.
A movement to remove the exemption for radio and newspaper messages was defeated. It merely increased the rate on messages between 50 cents and $1.15 cents over

PENSION APPROVED FOR WAR WIDOWS

House Passes Measure To Cost U. S. $100,000,000
Within Five Years.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—
A pension bill for widows and orphans of World War veterans, expected to cost more than $100,000,000
within five years, was passed today
by the house.

It was sent to the senate with an overwhelming vote of 518 to 16. At present only dependent widows and orphans of soldiers who died as a direct result of the war receive compensation.

Before passage, a section providing pensions for dependent mothers and fathers of veterans whose deaths were not attributable to the war was eliminated from the measure.

The measure is opposed by the administration and in its original form
was estimated by Brigadier General Frank T. Hines, veterans administrator, to cost $15,000,000 the first year
and $161,134,000 within five years.

It was brought up under strict rules of procedure. Speaker Garner recognized Chairman Rankin, of the World War veterans' committee, for a motion to suspend the house rules and pass the bill. It requires a two-thirds vote for approval, but the opposition was insignificant.

Rankin, democrat, Mississippi, estimated the cost, with the aged dependents, at $100,000,000.

'Tough' Capone Weeps at Bad News And Calls Decision 'Dirty Shame'

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN.
CHICAGO, May 2.—(UP)—The United States supreme court today ended Al Capone's 10-year reign as America's king of crime with a decision which brought tears of self-pity
to the eyes of the paunchy "Scar-face."

In denying a petition for rehearing
of his income tax fraud conviction,
the high court set in motion machinery
which will send Capone to Leavenworth penitentiary, Wednesday, or Thursday to start serving an 11-year sentence.

"It's a dirty shame," Capone shouted in his cell at the Cook county jail
when his attorney brought him the

AL CAPONE LOSES PLEA FOR REVIEW

Gang Chieftain Expected To Go to Pen Soon, as Supreme Court Acts.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—Al
Capone's long-deferred trip to a federal penitentiary will begin within a few days. The supreme court today made that possible.

It refused to review the gangster's conviction for evasion of the income tax laws and his subsequent sentence to 11 years imprisonment.

True, he now has 25 days in which to file a petition that the court recom-
sider its decision and the lower federal courts may, in their discretion, keep him jailed in Chicago for that period.

However, indications are that this will not be done. Justice department officials said today the underworld
chieftain would start for prison Wednesday or at the latest, Thursday.

Which of the three federal penitentiaries would start his destination was not made public. His sentence specified Leavenworth, but officials said
the conviction and sentence were affirmed by the seventh circuit court of appeals February 27, 1932.

When the circuit court refused a rehearing on March 23 last, it granted Capone a stay of 30 days in which to take the case to the supreme court.
Capone, who has been in the Chicago jail since his conviction, would

Curtis Is on Yacht Ready for Rendezvous

NORFOLK, Va., May 2.—(UP)—
A society man-boat builder, a much traveled retired banker, and a young crack pilot, all ready for good weather tonight hoping to resume their efforts to locate the Lindbergh kidnappers at sea.

John Edgar Curtis, the boatbuilder, Edwin B. Bruce, of Elmira, N. Y., the banker, and Lieutenant George L.
Richard, the pilot, moved nervously
to and from the yacht Marcon, moored at the submarine base, where they studied weather charts and telephoned to Cape Henry for forecasts.

"There is a good prospect that the Marcon, 35-foot twin Diesel motorized cruiser owned by Colonel Charles H.
Connelley, hotel owner of Norfolk, Baltimore and Richmond, might be able to move out during tonight's high water."

The Marcon will go out many leagues to sea. Aboard will be Curtis, Bruce, Richard, Captain H. Lack-mann, the Marcon's skipper, and the absolutely necessary members of her small crew. To reports that Charles A.
Lindbergh is aboard, or will be aboard, men on the Marcon say cati-gorically that it is not aboard and will not be—if for no other reason, because the last man anyone could connected with his baby boy's kidnapping will want to see.

At sea the Marcon's complement hope to have a chance. They looked for the kid and thought they found it.
They didn't look for the kid. I was not given a chance. I've stopped more crime waves than the police.
Why?

Capone continued in the same vein,
until finally he became so overcome with his own oratory that he held his head in his hands and wept. The toughest gangster in Chicago's history, suspect in scores of murders and head of a once million-dollar
liquor, gambling and vice syndicate, buried his nose in a handkerchief. He

BRITISH AVIATOR ADMITS WRITING 'SUICIDE' NOTES

Report That Notes Were
'Palpable Forgeries.'

MIAMI, Fla., May 2.—(UP)—
Captain W. N. Lancaster, noted aviator, was charged late today with the murder of Haden Clarke, young journalist, found fatally shot at the home of Mrs. Jessie M. Keith-Miller, Australian aviator, here 11 days ago.

State's Attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne charged Lancaster with the murder when a handwriting expert said suicide notes purported to have been left by Clarke, were forgeries.

Hawthorne said Lancaster admitted
writing the notes, but denied killing Clarke.

Hawthorne, in a statement, said he took notes from Clarke's room and addressed to Lancaster and Mrs.
Keith-Miller, to J. V. Herring, recognized expert on forgeries and fraudulent documents.

"Herring reported that they were both 'palpable forgeries,' the state's attorney said. 'I have taken every precaution to make certain of my charges before filing them against Lancaster.'

Lancaster was placed in the county jail this afternoon while the state's attorney's office makes work on a warrant. "This warrant is a mere formality," said Hawthorne, "and we will serve it as quickly as possible."

Non-Gold Nations Increase U. S. Trade

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—Data sent to the senate today by the tariff commission without interpretation showed almost half of America's imports come from countries which have gone off the gold standard.

The commission's report was in response to a resolution sponsored by Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, asking that the effects of depreciated currencies on imports be shown.

A report also was asked on ad valorem tariff equivalents before other countries cheapened their money as compared with the present, but the commission said in a letter, these figures are not yet available. They will be submitted soon.

The tables showed that although the value of imports from all countries declined sharply during the comparative periods, the quantity of many commodities from the depreciated currency nations increased.

Prices fell in some instances as much as 50 per cent.

Real 'Zoo' Charms Youthful Guests At Birthday Party at Candler Home

Rough-hided elephants, beasts of maharajas, chained to stakes on the greenward, waving their trunks and bellows, the tawny lion king of all animals, pacing slowly behind his bars, and glaring contemptuously at the faces of onlookers—this was the scene at the birthday party of three-year-old Nancy Candler III, and one-year-old Asa Candler V, given by their mother, Mrs. John Howard Candler, Monday afternoon.

Eighty or seventy prominent Atlanta children were present at the party. All were taken for rides in a cart behind Rosie the elephant. The children, unfamiliar with the circus surroundings, were enchanted by the animals, especially the elephants who ambled about like loose sacks of sawdust. Wearing their vari-colored paper crepe hats and waving balloons, the small tots wandered about over the grass eating ice cream and cookies or went for short journeys behind faithful Rosie, long a resident of Miami Beach.

A few of the children were frightened by the strangeness of the animals and the unfamiliar people, and vented their feelings as only very young people can. Some, too small to take part in the fun, had to content themselves with being held in the arms of their smiling nurses.

And adoring young mothers always appear to enjoy such parties more than their young children.

Hapeville Man To Get Medal for Bravery

Gibson's heroic act occurred while he was on a picnic on Rottenwood creek, in Cobb county, last summer. Noticing the perilous situation of 17-year-old Nolan McManus, who had come to the bottom in eight feet of water, Gibson hastily removed part of his clothing, dove into the creek, and brought the unconscious boy to the shore. He then applied artificial respiration and restored the boy to consciousness.

MRS. SALLIE H. JONES DIES IN ST. PETERSBURG

Mrs. Sallie Harris Jones, wife of the late Dr. Harvey Jones, for many years a leading Atlanta physician and professor of chemistry at the Atlanta Medical College, died Saturday in a private hospital in St. Petersburg, Fla., where she had made her home since her husband's death. Funeral services and interment will be in St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Jones was a member of one of the most prominent Georgia families, being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harris, of Madison, and the great-granddaughter of General Jephthah V. Harris, who was a member of the first graduating class of the University of Georgia. Mrs. Jones was educated at Lucy Cobb Institute, in Athens, and resided for many years in Atlanta after her marriage. She had a wide circle of friends in this city.

TWO SHOOTING CASES "CLOSED," POLICE SAY

Police Monday considered closed the fatal shooting Sunday of J. E. Murphy, of Griffin, and the wounding of Benjamin J. Askew, city employee. Murphy was killed by W. W. Addis, of Egan Park, who shot at a prowler at his home early Sunday morning and later found the man he killed to have been an acquaintance. A coroner's jury Sunday afternoon absolved Addis from blame. The body of Murphy was taken to Griffin for funeral services and interment.

Askew, according to police reports, was shot in the abdomen when he and his wife sought to remove a loaded pistol from the dining room table simultaneously. He was carried to the United States Veterans' hospital No. 48, where Monday it was said that his condition was "fair."

BABY BADLY HURT IN FALL TO STEPS

Dropped by his mother on a flight of concrete steps, four-month-old Bruce Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Wallace, of 906 McMillan street, was in Grady hospital Monday with a probable fracture of the skull, according to hospital attaches. The mother dropped the baby Saturday while descending the steps, it was said. The child was apparently uninjured at the time, but showed signs of being ill and was carried to the hospital later. Doctors said his condition was critical.

Fulton Seniors to Wear Cotton for Graduation

In connection with the observance of National Cotton Week, seniors of Fulton High school will attend their commencement exercises attired in cotton clothing, it was voted by the class Monday morning, according to an announcement through the Junior Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the movement here.

Here A. Wells, superintendent of county schools, was present at the balloting attired in a cotton suit, and two students dressed in inexpensive cotton dresses modeled the clothes for the class. The dresses the girls will wear are to be made by the home economics department of the school. Boy seniors are to wear cotton suits.

MRS. ANNA H. PAYNE DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Anna Holmes Payne, wife of the late E. T. Payne, for many years tax collector of Atlanta, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dollie Payne Thebault, in Oakland, Cal. The body will be brought to Atlanta for funeral services and interment. Arrangements will be announced later.

A former resident of Atlanta for many years, Mrs. Payne was a member of the First Baptist church, and is widely known here. She had resided in California for some time.

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Payne is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. G. Brazelton, of Birmingham, Ala., and five grandchildren, Dr. Max Thebault and Payne Thebault, of Oakland, and Edwin Payne III, Keith Payne and Holmes Payne, all of Atlanta.

Roosevelt Fight on Ancient Rule Received Official Start in Georgia

A fight against the century-old two-thirds rule in democratic national conventions, which it now appears will be waged by supporters of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, got its official start in Georgia when the state convention, April 6, unanimously recommended that it be abolished.

A resolution from the floor offered by Trox Bunkston was sent to the platform committee and was unanimously approved. It was passed by the convention as a whole without a dissenting vote against it.

According to Monday's New York Times, supporters of Governor Roosevelt are planning to attack it at Chicago. Previous attacks were made on it in New York in 1924 by supporters of William G. McAdoo and in 1928 by friends of Alfred E. Smith.

The Times said that political advisers of Roosevelt have obtained a legal opinion that the convention "may at any time" decide by a vote of the majority to abandon the two-thirds rule and nominate by a majority vote.

Adopted in the first democratic national convention which nominated Andrew Jackson for the presidency, it has been a bone of contention in the party ever since. Political observers believe that the sentiment favoring its abolition, expressed so decisively in Georgia for the first time in the south, is so strong that it will be done away with at Chicago. If it is, there remains little doubt but that Roosevelt will be named on an early ballot.

DO YOU INHALE?

Why is this vital question so much avoided by other cigarettes?

EVER since Lucky Strike created that special process for purifying fine tobacco and told the full facts about cigarette smoking—the industry has been in an uproar. For Lucky Strike has dared to mention things that were considered "taboo" in the cigarette trade.

You may have noticed a striking avoidance generally of the word "inhale" in cigarette advertising. Why? Goodness only knows! For everybody inhales—knowingly or unknowingly! Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

That's why it's all-important to be certain that your cigarette smoke is pure and clean—to be sure you don't inhale certain impurities.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question—for it gives you the protection you want... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

wards was a member of the Russell reorganization committee and has pledged himself to carry out the program begun by the present executive. Tucker, likewise, is committed to the Russell policies and while never a member of the governor's political cabinet, has been one of his staunch supporters.

The other candidates, like Talmadge, are less closely identified with the Russell organization. Dr. John R. Lewis, of Louisville, however, is a kinsman of the governor's. Hoke O'Keller is an unknown quantity in state political circles, as is Lee Langley, of Catoosa county. Edgar Dunlap has, by his own admission, been eliminated as a contender. Others who are expected to make some announcement this week of their intentions are Judge J. R. Terrell, of Greenville, and Judge Alvan H. Freeman, of Newnan. Both are widely known throughout the state.

Although Governor Russell has, with considerable emphasis, indicated that he will remain in the race for the senate seat held by the late William J. Harris, several of his friends continued hopeful that he would agree to be "drafted" in order that Talmadge might be stopped in his march to the gubernatorial nomination.

Looses Last Plea

"TOUGH" CAPONE WEEPS AT NEWS

gushed and sniffled, demonstrating for perhaps the last time in Chicago why intimates call him "Snorky."

He brought up his famous trial of last autumn before Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson, mentioned his abortive attempt to escape imprisonment recently with the plea that he might be able to find the Lindbergh baby.

"I agreed to take two and a half years when I went to trial," he said, commenting upon Judge Wilkerson's statement that "you cannot bargain with a federal court." Capone's gain of a bargain with Prosecutor George E. J. Johnson figured in a recent senate hearing upon Judge Wilkerson's nomination to a circuit court judgeship.

For his announcement that he could find the Lindbergh baby if even freed, a statement which even Capone himself has admitted he never intended to make, he was cursed by federal agents who investigated and found preposterous his claim that he could locate the child.

Marshall H. C. W. Laubheimer said that he would take Capone to prison immediately upon receipt of the supreme court mandate. An unusually heavy guard will accompany Capone to the federal penitentiary at Joliet.

Capone will serve a 10-year sentence in Leavenworth and then another one-year sentence in jail here. If his conduct is good time off will cut his stay behind bars to seven and one-half years.

He was convicted of defrauding the government of $182,000 in income taxes. District Attorney Johnson brought the charges against him only after state and city officials admitted their inability to convict him of murder or any of the lesser crimes which made Chicago's reputation infamous for a decade.

Capone has been gaining weight in a cell at Chicago's new jail since his conviction last October 24. He is worried about his ever-increasing girth, but hopes to lose some of it in the government's shoe factory at Leavenworth.

His incarceration has not been without its drama, which began when Warden David Moneybenny rode to Springfield in a 10-cylinder sedan, belonging to Capone. The warden said he didn't know it belonged to the "Scarface." An automobile dealer later took the car back because Capone hadn't been meeting his monthly payments. "You can't make payments when you're in jail," Al explained.

Soon thereafter rumors developed that Capone was running his gang from an improvised office inside the jail. A federal investigation disproved the rumors, but resulted in a 24-hour guard being placed at his cell. It was believed to be the first time that the government found it necessary to employ federal guards for a prisoner in a county jail.

Capone played pinochle with his guards when he wasn't asleep or reading his elaborately bound sets of O. Henry and Upton Sinclair. He discarded his fanciful dress, which included white flannel trousers with green stripes down the seams for festive occasions, and $100 sack suits with extra-large right-hand pockets for "business use."

He wore behind the yellow-painted bars a pair of baby pants, a shirt open at his chest and a cap to protect his bald spot from jail drafts. While he twiddled his thumbs and issued tirades against authorities to any newspaper reporter who would listen, his far-flung gang was disgracing. Competitors who would have been taken for a "one-way ride" a year ago, "muscle" into his rackets. The price of beer dropped from 25 cents to 15 cents a glass. Most of his vice resorts closed. His gambling houses came upon lean times. Raids depleted his breweries. Many of his W.W. distillers sold out to the opposition.

His impending trip to Kansas thus finds the "arch criminal" a flabby man in a shabby suit, penniless according to his own accounts, and powerless in what once was America's most vicious criminal empire.

REMUS IS RELEASED IN DAMAGE ACTION

BALTIMORE, May 2. — (AP) — George Remus, who once figured prominently in Ohio liquor cases, today was released as a defendant in the $50,000 damage suit filed in superior court against him and Miss Blanche Watson, of Louisville, Ky., as racing stable partners.

The suit was filed by Frank Lashley, negro groom, who testified today that he was injured in August at the Thistledown track at Cleveland, Ohio, by a plunging horse he was leading from the paddock to the track. Remus acted as his own attorney.

cause of the serious danger of the impairment to the functions of those governments in the near future, the league has been immediately placed on a sounder basis."

The league insists that no money should be spent this year by either of the governments "except that which is required to provide governmental services which beyond any doubt are necessary for the public good at this time."

In particular it is recommended that road and bridge building by the county "except for which there is immediate and urgent necessity," be stopped. Expenditures by the county on "private or semi-private works" are condemned and the statement declares that "work on private subdivisions and construction like that underway just north of the Morningside section does not appear to be in response to any urgent and immediate need."

Greater needs than such construction, says the statement, are support of agencies safeguarding public health and support of charitable undertakings.

Pay Roll Cuts Demanded.

Removal from the pay rolls of all employees except those required to give necessary service is advocated.

Poucing on salaries the statement says that where they are too high they should be reduced; if too low, they should be raised; where unnecessary they should be eliminated.

"The unfair discrimination in the scale of the salaries as against employees of the city and in favor of employees of the county must be stopped," the league declares.

Care should be taken, the statement pointed out, to preserve essential services, such as a good school system, and others. The statement concludes with the declaration that the league is reluctant to go into personal politics, but that waste of public money must stop.

Expenditures Hit.

The statement follows:

"To all citizens of Atlanta and Fulton County:

"Over a period of months the Taxpayers' League has made a study of city and county governments. They have heard from several members of the county board of commissioners who were invited to present their views. The league has given careful consideration to their opinions and to the opinions of various officials of the city government who were consulted.

"As a result of this study the Taxpayers' League is able to inform voters of examples of expenditures on the part of both governments which might be eliminated in the interest of the public good, and of certain policies of the board of county commissioners which result in burdening all taxpayers and in unfair discrimination against employees of the city."

"Conclusions have not been reached hastily. They are the result of serious deliberation which prompts the league at this time to make definite recommendations because of the serious danger of the impairment to the functions of these governments in the near future unless both are placed immediately on a sounder basis.

"Divulging city revenues might easily result in a crippled school system, a new cry for reduction in salaries of city employees or other radical action to the hurt of the community. None of these things are desired by the members of the Taxpayers' League. In order that they may not happen, and in order that the overburdened taxpayer may get some much needed relief, the board of directors of the Taxpayers' League, at a meeting on Thursday, April 28, voted to recommend this policy.

"No money should be spent this year by either of our governments, except that which is required to provide governmental services which beyond any doubt are necessary for the public good at this time.

"Stopping Work Advocated.

"In particular, road and bridge building by the county government except for which there is immediate and urgent necessity should be stopped. For example, work on private subdivisions and construction like that under way just north of the Morningside section does not appear to be in response to any urgent and immediate need. However, useful such development may ultimately become, those citizens who think this construction to be of importance will agree that the good of the whole community be placed above that of any private needs.

"Other public needs are greater. The agency safeguarding public health must be supported. The jobless must be fed, either by private or public money. There is very little money available. If it is taken from the citizens and expended by the county on private or semi-private works, proper support of charitable undertakings cannot be secured. Our people in this time of stress can afford to pay only for necessary things."

"The application of the principle to both governments means that their keep on their pay rolls all the employees required to give necessary service, but no more. The policy of spending tax money to create unnecessary jobs, or to continue on the pay rolls unnecessary employees, is unsound and dangerous. The usual argument in supporting that policy is that it must not increase the number of unemployed.

"In formulating a policy for the good of the whole community, the employees of private businesses are entitled to consideration. If the burden of taxation causes private businesses to fail or to withdraw from Atlanta, as has been the case, the increase in unemployment will be greater than that which would result from the elimination by city and county governments of their surplus employees."

"The attitude of the Taxpayers' League is that where salaries are too high they should be reduced; where too low, they should be raised; where the job is not necessary for the public good at this time, the salary should be eliminated entirely. The unfair discrimination in the scale of the salaries as against employees of the city and in favor of employees of the county must be stopped.

Support for Candidates.

"Both governments raise the bulk of their taxes from the same people. The amount of tax money which it is possible to raise under our system at the present time is limited. When this money is fairly proportioned as between the city and county, and when both governments have reduced their expenses in accordance with the principle of providing only minimum essentials, both governments will be able to give service in keeping the present standards or better. Both will be able to pay their necessary employees salaries when due and both will be able to pay interest on their obligations.

"Our taxpayers have suffered enough. All employees of the city have had salaries cut. Neither the taxpayer nor the employee whose services are necessary can afford a high-priced county government or waste in the city government. Both taxpayers and employees must sacrifice, but fair play to them demands that our officials go to the extreme limit in reducing the burden of government.

"In reducing expenses, care should be exercised not to let political considerations result in cutting essential services at the expense of those not so nearly essential. For example, we know that our people expect and demand a sound school system. Efficiency in that department must be secured and maintained. However, the principle outlined must apply to the school system also.

"It is not the wish of the members of the Taxpayers' League to go into personal politics. Nevertheless, this waste of public money must stop, and to stop it the Taxpayers' League will not hesitate to advocate candidates for the legislature who will vote for the necessary measures to bring about relief.

"TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE.

GRAND JURY IS CHARGED TO INVESTIGATE WASTE

W. A. Jones, of Center Hill, candidate in the March primary for county commissioner, was named foreman of the May term grand jury which was charged Monday morning by Judge Virlyn B. Moore. Frank K. Shaw, of the industrial bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, was named secretary.

In his charge to the jury, Judge Moore confined himself to detailing the duties of the jury but placed emphasis on the admonition that county departments be investigated to see whether there exists any financial waste. He told the jury that in acting on true bills they see but one side of the question and asked that they consider cases in that light, and to avoid wasting time on "frivolous small cases."

The jury returned one true bill Monday and recessed until today. The new jury in addition to Jones and Shaw include: G. C. McWhorter, Sidney S. Saul, assistant secretary; L. D. Hale, William Sulver, J. Y. Smith, W. V. Ogletree, M. C. Welch, M. E. Keeler, M. Yancy, E. C. Statterly, R. L. Cowan, R. M. Bush, J. R. Nix, Frederick Avery, Haygood Clarke, J. Floyd Huey and W. M. Squalid Mountaineer Community Will Be Moved to Better Conditions

BY JOHN F. CHESTER,

SKYLAND, Va., May 2.—(P)—The folks of Corbin Hollow—a community of perennial starvation and peniless squalor within a dozen miles of President Hoover's Rappahannock camp—are about to come into something more than their own.

A plan to move the community, rooted in this one spot since the Revolutionary War, to a new section of the mountains adjoining a church mission has been virtually agreed upon between federal and state officials. Mixed up in the strange story are officials of the National Park service, a Washington physician and a lone woman social worker, Miss Miriam Sizer.

Secretary Wilbur rode into the hollow over the week-end, accompanied by Horace M. Albright, director of the National Park service, Dr. R. Lyman Sexton, of Washington, and Miss Sizer.

They found six families living in the hollow, all named Corbin or Nicholson. All the adults are cousins. The children of sisters and brothers have intermarried. They speak a queer, Chaucerian English, almost understandable. They say "holpen"

for "to help," and "withouten" for "without." Dr. Sexton reported that the use of soap was almost unknown to them and that many suffered from malnutrition and tuberculosis. He told of taking a 20-month-old baby from the hollow that weighed only 12 pounds into a Luray, Va., hospital. With nourishment it has become almost normal.

Miss Sizer said all of the children up to 20 years of age would be in the first grade except two, the star being a 12-year-old youngster capable of going into the third grade. But in all Corbin Hollow history only nine months of schooling has been given the community.

Miss Sizer obtained for them three barrels of flour from the 40,000,000 bushels of farm board wheat recently voted by congress for the distressed.

She made them a barrel of sour kraut to ward off pellagra. She bought them potatoes and showed them how to eat apples.

Corbin Hollow is within the limits of the new Shenandoah National Park. In order not only to aid the Corbins and the Nicholsons, but also to clear the park, the plan of providing a sizeable plot for them near a mountain mission was advanced. Wilbur looked on it with favor.

"No matter what is done with these people," he said, "they will be better off. They have nothing to lose."

Marriages Imperiled By Attack on Justices

CLEVELAND, May 2.—(P)—Legal action which it sustained would deprive all Ohio justices of the peace of their judicial power and perhaps invalidate tens of thousands of wedding ceremonies was filed in the court of appeals today.

The action was brought by Attorney T. L. Bishop in the form of a writ of prohibition to prevent Justice William J. Zoni, of Shaker Heights, from adjusting a suit filed by Dr. Roy C. Eddy to collect $88 from William A. Weinkamer.

Bishop asserted that all Ohio justices are without jurisdiction and have no legal authority to hear lawsuits or in any way to act in a judicial capacity.

MERIWETHER COUNTY RAISES VICTORY FUND

Democrats in Meriwether county, where Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt is spending a few days at "the summer White House," Monday subscribed the county quota of $400 to the victory campaign fund in less than 30 minutes.

To Gus Huddleston, member of the general assembly and candidate for attorney general, who sent the tidings to state headquarters, Cam D. Dorsey, chairman, replied:

"Am delighted but not surprised at fine showing made at Greenville meeting today. Meriwether county democrats can always be counted on. Appreciate all you have done. Fulton committee joins me in congratulations and best wishes."

State College Heads Must Use Own Autos

Officials of state-owned colleges will ride in their own automobiles after July 1.

The board of regents of the University of Georgia and its branches, including 25 schools and colleges and two experiment stations, Monday passed an order for the sale of 57 machines now owned by the state and prohibited exchange or purchase of new automobiles.

The officials of the colleges and experiment stations owning their own machines will be paid a certain amount for mileage, to be fixed by the finance committee. Those who desire to purchase the cars they now operate will be permitted to do so.

FIVE NEGROES ESCAPE, ARE SOON RECAPTURED

Five negroes who escaped from the North convict camp Monday were recaptured within three hours. The prisoners, four of them brothers, escaped from a rock quarry on Piedmont road shortly after 2 o'clock amid a fusillade of shots fired by guards. County police, aided by bloodhounds, found and recaptured the quintet shortly before 3 o'clock. Of eight county convicts who escaped last week, seven were retaken.

Veterans To Meet. All members of the Colored War Veterans' Association are invited to attend their weekly meeting at 8 o'clock Tuesday night in Room 222, Herndon building, on Auburn avenue.

ATLANTA, GA., MAY 3, 1932.

MAKE HIM CHIEF IN FACT.

In his first statement to the members of the police force Chief Sturdivant cautioned them that "any man caught carrying tales will be forced to prove them or himself before the police board for trial; the police department has been disrupted long enough through this practice and I am going to put a stop to it."

In that statement Chief Sturdivant starts off on the wrong foot. What he should have said was that any man guilty of busybody conduct—or any other act subversive to the efficiency of the department—would be promptly suspended, and the act reported to the board, which could get a new chief if it did not uphold his hands.

Any other course means opening the way for a continuance of the same old ruses, jealousies and political bickering and wrangling that has wrecked the efficiency of the department in the past.

The chief must be chief in fact as well as in name or else the board will be chief, and the chief only a figurehead.

The chief should be given full authority to hire, fire or suspend and backed up in that authority to the limit. Then any member of the force guilty of negligence or conduct contrary to the chief's orders will do it with the knowledge that he is laying himself liable to prompt and permanent discipline.

The board should leave in the chief's hands the full administrative control of the department. That is the only way he can enforce the discipline necessary before the force will begin to function as it should.

The chief should let the members of the force know that they are responsible to him and to him alone and that he will not brook for a moment attempts to go over his head either to the board or other outside political influences.

The board has put itself on record as saying that "the chief's word is law and it must be obeyed cheerfully and with dispatch."

That puts it squarely up to Chief Sturdivant to be chief in fact and not a puppet.

Hoover says the forces of liquidation are spent. Yes, and so is everything else.

BUSINESS LOOKS UP.

Encouraging increases in wholesale and retail trade, residential building and textile manufacturing are reported in the federal reserve review of March business in this district.

Cotton consumption in American mills and textile production is reported as showing increasing signs of stabilization, having registered for the eleventh successive month an increase over the same month of the preceding year.

The same significance attaches to the increase in wholesale trade, the larger volume of this type of business following a similar record in February and March, 1931, report.

Atlanta again leads the sixth federal reserve district in the increase in retail sales, the district registering figures 17.4 greater than those of February, while local merchants reported a 25.6 per cent gain.

Notwithstanding the increase in both wholesale and retail sales the stocks on hand at the end of the month were less than those reported in the March, 1931, report.

The decrease in stocks on hand in spite of the increased buying is one of the most hopeful features of the report. It means that merchants are still replenishing their stocks

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

That Smoking Rhythm.
Why do people smoke cigarettes? Was the question debated by the London Society for the Study of Inebriety. Mark well that word: inebriety. Sounds as if some people associate smoking with drunkenness. But anyhow, the answer to that question is, according to Professor J. D. Rolleston: (1) the desire to feel grown-up; (2) the reluctance to feel eccentric or unsocial; (3) the inability to break the habit; and (4) the psychology of advertising.

The actions leading up to smoking a cigarette—taking it out of the case, tapping it and lighting it—constitute, said the professor, a rhythmic series of events which make it difficult to drop the habit. Cigarette smoking is associated with other habits, like cocktail drinking and is most prevalent among young adults of both sexes.

Investigation by an authority in England had shown that there were soldiers who smoked 50 cigarettes a day, officers who smoked between 50 and 100, and one man who smoked 150 per day. At that, this fellow falls short of M. Briand's record of 200 a day, or at least that was his daily ration.

All records are eclipsed by a Viennese lady of 24—a movie actress she is—who by means of a complicated system of tubes manages to smoke 240 cigarettes at the same time. Blind people, it was brought out at that discussion, do not smoke cigarettes. For a person pleases himself by sight. All this has no bearing on pipe-smoking, by the way.

THE TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE.

Elimination of all possible administrative expenses, both by the city and county administrations, is urged in a statement, published elsewhere in this issue, by the Taxpayers' League, in which warning is made of "the serious danger of the impairment to the functions of these governments in the near future unless both are immediately placed on a sounder basis."

The league stresses that care should be taken to preserve all essential governmental services, but that waste of public money must cease.

There can be no reasonable exception to the position of the league that "no money should be spent this year by either of our local governments except that which is required to provide governmental services which beyond any doubt are necessary for the public good at this time."

That is the basis on which business and industry is now operating, and it is the manner in which the business of government must be operated if we are to avert governmental bankruptcy and lighten the intolerable burden now being carried by the taxpayers.

In its statement the league, which is composed of several thousand public-spirited citizens of Atlanta, men and women, representing every line of business and endeavor, expresses its reluctance to go into "personal politics," stressing that its sole purpose is to render aid towards putting the affairs of the city and county on a business basis. On that basis there must be general approval of so frank a statement as that published today.

An organization of this kind, inspired by no political motives and having only the public welfare at heart, is fully entitled to the support it has received. Similar associations of citizens in other cities have accomplished splendid results in the elimination of unhealthy conditions in government and there is no reason why the same thing cannot be done in Atlanta.

The Atlanta Taxpayers' League is only a few months old, but it has already associated with it representative members of every circle of life in the city. Its officers and directors are men who have in the past demonstrated their loyal and unselfish devotion to the best interests of the community.

There can be no doubt that for years in Atlanta, as in many other cities throughout the country, there has been an inexcusable waste of the taxpayers' money. Such a non-partisan organization as the Taxpayers' League can render valuable service in bringing the administration of our public affairs back to a sane and conservative basis.

A Cleveland surgeon says man has two brains. And uses about 5 per cent of one of them.

THE WILKERSON APPOINTMENT.

The senate should confirm without delay the nomination of Federal Judge Wilkerson, of Chicago, to the circuit court. To do otherwise would strengthen the hold of gangsterism on the whole country and further impede the courts in their effort to mete out justice to those who have for so long been openly flaunting the law.

For many years Judge Wilkerson has been the particular nemesis of Chicago's gangsters. He has struck many telling blows at gang rule and it is chiefly due to his courage and vigor that Capone came to the end of his vice reign with the imposition of a stiff jail sentence, now confirmed by the supreme court.

It is unthinkable that the senate should refuse to give an able and fearless judge a richly deserved promotion.

If he should fail of confirmation gangland would be surer of its hold on Chicago and the balance of the country.

Poke as much fun as you will at the weatherman about his predictions, but he's a much better prognosticator than a so-called financial expert.

The admonition to "spend less than you make" is very good, of course, but a lot of us are puzzled to know how much is less than nothing.

The World Isn't Finished.—Caption of an article in the Saturday Evening Post, by Charles F. Kettering. Maybe not, but it's just about it.

The Machine Becomes a Public Enemy

When It Makes All Men Jobless, Hungry

By Robert Quillen

America's supreme court has the power of an absolute monarch. It can and does, wholly disregard the will of the people.

If all the people oppose child labor, as most of them probably do, they cannot obtain a law to forbid it. The supreme court has decided against them.

The only way the people can make their will effective in such cases is to demand an amendment to the constitution.

Now the supreme court has ruled that the people have no power to prevent foolish and wasteful competition in business.

If the court does not reverse itself, the people may be forced to adopt another amendment to save the country from utter bankruptcy. Here is the situation in brief. If any community now has so many idle hands that it cannot get enough business to pay expenses, it is obviously foolish to permit another to begin operations.

Yet the supreme court holds that every man has the right to make and sell ice, and that any effort to interfere with him is a violation of his rights and liberties.

That is obviously true. But the rights of the individual must be sacrificed to the common good, and the interpretation of his rights must change to fit the needs of the community.

If the whole public is injured by free competition, then the public's right to protection cancels the individual's right to do business.

When the making of radio sets promised riches, there were more than 5,000 manufacturers in the field. Their average profit was less than a carpenter's wages, and less than 1 per cent of them survived. The failures lost their own money, the money of stockholders and the money borrowed from banks.

Now the whole nation is crippled, and much of its suffering is due to senseless competition and the resulting overproduction.

A machine age can produce more than the people can consume. And since business is financed by selling stock to the people and borrowing money from the public, why permit additions to an overcrowded field and thus disaster to everybody concerned?

If the law limits the number of broadcasting stations and the number of railroads, and to forbid any man the right to make beer, why is it denied the power to prevent any and all competition that threatens the savings of the people and the jobs of those who labor?

HOLLYWOOD IN PERSON

BY MOLLIE MERRICK.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., May 2.—Censorship is making more trouble for movie men these days than it has ever before. The trouble is one which has cost Howard Hughes a good hundred thousand and which, he claims, has ruined the approval of his picture, "The Trial of Sacco and Vanzetti," by the public.

The picture, which is being shown in the city, is a picture of the trial of the two Italian anarchists, Sacco and Vanzetti, who were hanged in the Massachusetts state prison in 1927.

34 CANDIDATES FOR THE CALIFORNIA VOTE

WILL VOTE ON 3 LEADERS

BY RALPH M. REEF.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—(AP)—With the eyes of the nation focused on the outcome, California democrats vote their preference tomorrow for a presidential candidate in a three-way factional fight that has eclipsed the unopposed republican delegation pledged to President Hoover.

Unusual interest attends the primary because it brings the outstanding democratic presidential candidates, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Alfred E. Smith and John N. Garner, into a contest for the first time.

Another factor is the record democratic registration in President Hoover's home state, which conceded republican victory in the election.

Bitter wrangling over party control in the state, the real cause of the factional strife in democratic ranks, has resulted in charges of political trickery and "whispering," and in challenges of sincerity and veracity.

Strange lineups have resulted, with the democrats and drys hitched to the same candidate.

Roosevelt leaders seeking the state's 44 votes in the national convention declared victory would definitely put their candidate in front for the democratic nomination and regain whatever prestige may have been lost because of the results in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania last week.

While discussed by some speakers, prohibition has not been made an out-and-out issue in the democratic campaign. All three candidates have been acclaimed as wet, although the issue is being actively supported by a dry, William G. McAdoo.

Coming to California to campaign for his father, James D. Roosevelt, the son, James D. Roosevelt, Jr., appeared at the latter city with Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana. Young Roosevelt, disgraced by prohibition, reiterated his father was "wet" and counseled delegates to vote for Garner if they were "dry," and for Smith if they "didn't want anything done" about prohibition.

Approximately 1,400,000 republican voters are registered. With nearly 1,000,000 democrats and those minor parties on the poll books, the registration reached a new record of 2,316,816.

Under the state's presidential primary law, delegates pledged to a candidate must vote for him in the national convention.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S AID SEEN FOR ROOSEVELT
COLUMBIA, S. C., May 2.—(AP)—Early reports from county democratic headquarters over the state indicated that New York's governor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, will be the top-favorite for presidential nomination.

The prohibition question popped up at several meetings. Richard county adopted a resolution calling for a referendum on the eighteenth amendment.

Marion county adopted a resolution calling on enforcement of prohibition, and Greenwood voted one down asking that the eighteenth amendment be repealed. Newberry expressed allegiance to prohibition laws.

RHODE ISLAND GIVES SUPPORT TO SMITH
PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 2.—(AP)—The Rhode Island state democratic convention today refused by a vote of 172 to 28 to endorse the presidential candidacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt and instructed its delegates to the national convention to support Alfred E. Smith.

The state has 10 votes at the national convention.

The convention instructed its delegation to work and vote for a plank for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment or an adequate plan for submitting the question of repeal to the voters of the various states.

Another resolution was adopted directing the delegation to act as a unit at the national convention, governed by the majority vote of the delegation.

ALABAMA DEMOCRATS TODAY MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 2.—(AP)—Tossing sounded in Alabama today as candidates rallied their forces for the democratic primary tomorrow, in which the state's 24 votes in the national convention in Chicago are in the balance.

The delegate fight largely has been confined to the delegates-at-large, eight to be elected with half a vote each, while the district candidates, four each, are permitted to steer their own course.

Of 51 candidates for delegates in the 10 districts, each to elect two full vote each, Roosevelt's forces claim 40 as pledged, while several of the others are regarded as favorites for the nomination.

There are 17 candidates in the field for delegates-at-large, eight by each state, and the seventh running independent but "favoring Roosevelt."

12 STATE CONVENTIONS
WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—Nearly one-third, or 12, of the 37 republican and democratic state conventions scheduled for tomorrow will be held in Missouri.

Missouri's republican convention is expected to favor the nomination of delegates to support Alfred E. Smith.

Four democratic meetings ignored the question while two voted dry. Thirteen republican conventions made no mention of prohibition in their platforms. Six were dry.

The eight democratic conventions taking anti-prohibition or referendum stands are New York, Iowa, Maine, Minnesota, Washington, Michigan, Illinois and North Dakota.

CONGRESS PARDON URGED BY CRISP

The fact that the bill for clemency was sponsored by Representative Crisp, one of the leading figures in the democratic-controlled house, makes it certain that it will be accorded serious consideration. Under the circumstances it is difficult to see where any sort of opposition can be raised to its passage.

After pointing out that Lieutenant Masie had taken the law into his own hands only after a board of officers had recommended his execution, Crisp today said:

"The crime of assault on Mrs. Masie was brutal and even admitted by the technical guilt of her husband, Lieutenant Masie, the ire of every red-blooded American should be justly aroused by the execution of his wife, Representative Crisp today said:

CRIMINAL COURT WORK GAINS OVER LAST YEAR

42 Per Cent Increase Accompanied by 43 Per Cent Cut in Costs.

Business of the criminal court of Atlanta for the first quarter of this year increased by 63 per cent over the first quarter of 1928 and 42 per cent over the first quarter of last year, while the cost of handling the cases has decreased from $5.97 per case in 1928 to $3.43 per case in 1932, a net decrease in the last four years of 43 per cent, according to figures released Monday by Solicitor John S. McClelland.

McClelland, who took office on January 1, 1929, and who was nominated for re-election without opposition in the primary, reported that the court handled more state cases during April than have ever been disposed of in a court of its type in a like period in Georgia and in the south.

In April, 1,090 cases were disposed of, 965 before Judge Jesse M. Wood, and 125 before Judge Clarence Bell, of the municipal court, who presided in a special division of criminal court. McClelland said that 714 were found guilty, and of these 145 received straight sentences, 171 fines, with an alternative sentence, and 140 were placed on probation, or received suspended sentences. There were 156 bond forfeitures, seven cases nolle prossed, and 158 placed on the dead docket. Juries tried 25 cases and the remainder were disposed of by trial without a jury.

"In checking over the cases, we come to the conclusion that this large increase in business is due to the unusual economic conditions now prevailing over our entire country," McClelland said. "The greatest increase is in larceny, including stealing of property from automobiles and vacant houses, and other petty larceny cases, caused by the influx of a large number of strangers, who either hitch-hike or hobo, and who resort to stealing for their livelihood."

McClelland expressed appreciation to Judges Wood and McClelland for their assistance in making possible the disposition of this large volume of business.

Officers for 1932 Elected By Jacobs Pharmacy Club

At a recent meeting of the Jacobs Pharmacy Company Club, C. D. Hancock, right, was elected president; Miss Fannie Lee Lance, secretary and treasurer, and Clyde G. Wallace, vice president. The club was formed 10 years ago, and has rendered service both to employees and employers.

At a meeting recently of the Jacobs Pharmacy Company Club, an organization of employees, C. D. Hancock was elected president to serve during 1932. C. G. Wallace was named vice president, and Miss Fannie Lee Lance was made secretary and treasurer.

The club was formed in 1922 with the idea of benefit both to employees and employers, and L. N. Camp was elected president, and Miss Polly Gershon, secretary and treasurer. A board of governors with a representative from each store was appointed, and committees on finance, membership, entertainment and sickness were designated. Dues were set at 50 cents a month which were supplemented afterwards by a monthly check from the company.

No stockholder or officer was eligible for membership. A constitution and by-laws were adopted, and monthly meetings with dinner and entertainment were provided.

One of the things sponsored by the club was group insurance, the employees paying a part each month and the employers the balance. Now a few of the older employees have insurance policies of $5,000. Other service of the club includes flowers for sick members, and medical attention at hospitals. On Dr. Joseph Jacob's seventieth birthday the club presented him with a loving cup.

During the 10 years of the club's existence the following have served as presidents: L. N. Camp, W. T. Snyder, W. W. Gross, W. R. Waldrep, J. P. Irvin, S. L. Astin and C. D. Hancock (now serving).

FIVE PROGRAMS TODAY TO MARK MUSIC WEEK

Launched in more than 3,000 American cities Sunday, National Music Week has filled the air with music, and the ghosts of old masters are walking abroad to the accompaniment of haunting melody or stirring staccato of their never-forgotten masterpieces.

Atlanta was one of the leading cities to plan festive programs, and the celebration of Music Week got under way in full swing Sunday, to be followed Monday by programs that began early in the morning and lasted late into the night. Today's plans will result in maintaining the observance at a high pitch of enthusiasm, with lectures, recitals, oratorios and concerts to be given in various parts of Atlanta, as well as by radio broadcast.

At 10 o'clock this morning Dorothy Waldman will lecture at her studio, 739 Park drive, N. E., on works of Scarlatti, Mozart and Beethoven; and at the same hour special chapel exercises at Columbia university and a recital by the Lettingwell Violin school at Decatur high school. All during the afternoon various organizations will sponsor programs, the climax to be reached at 7:30 o'clock when the combined orchestras of the elementary and junior high schools will render a full evening's concert in the auditorium of Wesley Memorial church, under direction of Robert Lee Horney, supervisor of orchestral music for the public schools.

A special morning feature, to be given at the Peachtree Avenue at 11:30 this morning, will be the concert of the Atlanta Federation of Musicians, with a 25-piece orchestra, and the special Herbert and Sousa programs to be featured at the Paramount theater.

TWO ENLISTED MEN OF NAVAL RESERVE WILL GET TROPHIES

Admiral J. J. Rabie, commandant of the sixth naval district, with headquarters at Charleston, will arrive in Atlanta this afternoon to present two trophies tonight to the two enlisted men in the Atlanta battalion of the naval reserve for the most outstanding efficiency during the past year. It was announced Monday by Lieutenant Harry F. Dobbs, commanding officer of the Atlanta naval reserve. Names of the candidates for the award were not made public, and identity of the winners will not be announced until the presentation is made. It was said. The battalion will assemble at the Atlanta auditorium at 8 o'clock, and following the presentation, "open house" and entertainment, including special drills, will be held. Admiral Rabie will be entertained at dinner at 6 o'clock at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

Lieutenant E. H. Tillman, aide to the admiral, will accompany the district commander to Atlanta.

ZONING COMMISSION TO MEET WEDNESDAY

Petitions for the following changes in Atlanta zoning ordinances will be considered by the zoning subcommittee at a meeting to be held at the city hall at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and the planning commission will act on the recommendations at a meeting at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday.

AXMAN SLAYS 2; INTRUDER KILLED

Husband and Father of Victims Shoots Negro in Memphis Home.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 2.—(AP)—An "ax slayer" took the lives of a mother and her 5-year-old daughter while they slept in their home here at dawn today, and a negro accused of the double slaying was fatally wounded as he ran from the house.

Aurelia Puryear was backed to death as she lay beside her mother, Mrs. Stanley A. Puryear. The mother was awakened by her daughter's screams, only to be struck a blow that caused her death a few hours later in a hospital.

Puryear said he was roused from his sleep to see the negro standing near the bed in which he and a son, Porter, slept, with two pistols taken from a dresser drawer.

"He started blazing away with both guns," Puryear told police, "and I opened fire with a shotgun I kept by my bed. The negro dropped, but got up and ran from the house."

Will Jamison, negro, was found stumbling down the street near the Puryear home, mortally wounded.

Before his death, Jamison said he knew nothing of the slayings. He said Puryear persuaded him to accompany him home, offering him $3 to help him take some whisky from the house.

"He shot me down when we got to the house," the dying negro said. "I don't know anything about the things that happened inside."

"It is a horrible lie," Puryear replied when told of the negro's statement.

"Porter (his 12-year-old son) and I were asleep when the negro came in the house."

As he paced a hospital corridor prior to his wife's death, he repeated over and over again that he "had nothing to live for now."

"I never scolded my wife in our married life of more than 15 years," he told police. "We were a happy family. Sunday night my little girl, Aurelia, went to St. Thomas' Catholic church all dressed in white. She wanted to sleep with me so I could tell her stories. Things might have been different if I had let her sleep with me."

Attorney-General W. T. McLean, who is co-operating with police in the investigation, said he was not prepared as yet to comment on the case.

A. M. E. CONFERENCE OPENS IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 2.—(Special)—The twenty-ninth session of the general conference of the A. M. E. church convened in the Woodland Avenue Center here today. Bishop H. Blanton Parks, D. D., California, senior bishop, presided over the sessions.

The quadrennial sermon was delivered by Bishop W. T. Vernon of the twelfth Episcopal district.

The consecration of the holy communion, Bishops J. A. Gregg, S. I. Greens, R. A. Grant, G. B. Young, M. Davis, celebrated.

Sixteen hundred delegates and alternates answered the roll call and were qualified by the credential committee.

Eight thousand visitors makes the church parley unwieldy to wholesome legislation, it was said by church leaders.

Dr. R. S. Jenkins, of Texas, was re-elected secretary, and Drs. W. Boyd Lawrence, of Savannah, Ga.; J. C. Beckwith, of Philadelphia, and A. Wayman Ward, of Chicago, assistant secretaries. Marshals were named and confirmed by the body. All committees were announced and corrected.

A resolution that the laymen have equal representation on the Episcopal committee was defeated.

A program of welcome was observed Monday night as follows: Bishop W. H. Heard, D. D., presided. Welcome on behalf of church, Dr. D. O. Walker, pastor; welcome on behalf of the city, Mayor Ray T. Miller; welcome on behalf of the third Episcopal district, Rev. R. H. Bunney; welcome on behalf of the Interdenominational Union, Bishop C. S. Phillips; C. M. E. church; welcome on behalf of citizens, W. E. Davis, civil service commissioner; welcome on behalf of the state of Ohio, Governor George C. White; response to the governor, Bishop J. A. Gregg, Kansas City, Kan.; response to the mayor, Attorney F. B. Ransom, Indianapolis, Ind.; response to other addresses of welcome, Rev. W. H. Thomas, Washington.

Frazier Stops Vote On Navy Increase

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—A filibuster prevented a vote in the senate today on a motion to take up the Hale bill to build the navy to the limits allowed in the Washington and London naval treaties.

Senator Frazier, republican, North Dakota, prevented a vote late in the day, saying it was important that a measure to be voted on without the full membership of the senate.

Frazier contended the bill was contrary to the current naval holiday now in effect and did not represent the sentiment of this country as expressed at the Geneva disarmament conference.

Chairman Hale, of the naval committee, author of the bill, urged the senate to take it up, citing figures to show that the American fleet is falling behind those of other countries.

Under existing conditions, Hale said, by the end of the London treaty period in 1936 the United States will have but 65 of the 200 ships allowed; Japan will have 150; France 133 and Italy 115.

STATION L-O-V-E BY CRAIG CARROLL

WHAT HAD GONE BEFORE?—Judge Layton had been in Chicago six months without finding work, when Richard Mason, a friend of his, called on him one day a week talking position at his studio on A. A. Jenks' new Beauty Bldg. program. Judge Layton, who had been out of work, Judge got, told her the audition had been arranged for the following day. "If you like this time," he said. "But you'll wish you hadn't," she said to Judge. Judge spoke to Elton Day, who had been out of work, and the result, had arranged for the audition to result in Judge's favor. He announced to Judge that Dick Mason had been hired. Judge said that Dick Mason might be blamed. Dick had told Judge he was a singer, but he was not a singer, he said he had dependent relatives to support. Day also had fallen in love with the girl, and had been out of work. The contract for $100 a week, Judge was dissuading her from going. Judge said to her, "I am your friend Elsie, when they heard that Dick and Billy Townsend, a radio announcer, had been out of work, and Billy left the city, presumably for Cleveland, to look for jobs. Judge said, "I don't know anything about it. Of course not," he had said to her. Judge said to her, "I don't know anything about it. Of course not," he had said to her. Judge said to her, "I don't know anything about it. Of course not," he had said to her.

CHAPTER XLII.

"Oh, hello, Judy." Cold. Cold as ice. Just words, meaning nothing.

"Dick, you're back!"

"Yes. They sent for me. I'm getting into the car and out of the station. And I've got the same kind of deal on three other programs I was supposed to be making."

"One week, all together. I'll be caught himself. The look of pride, of a successful boy, just turned off."

"Said he. His face was composed, his smile was casual once more. "Yes, Judy, I'll be here right in the loop. Doing some consulting service on other programs. Billy is working with me on the new one."

"I'll see you tomorrow, I suppose."

"Dick!"

"Hello, Margaret. Waiting long?"

"Sorry. Shall we go? How about going on Rush street for lunch? I know a nice place with a very good menu."

"All right." Fudge. "I'll be on our way."

A girl Judy never had seen was waiting for him, laughing.

"Hello, Dick. Just to have Dick understand, twisted look on his face!"

Judy saw Elton Day at the studio office, sitting at his desk, very distant, saying little or nothing.

Judy, putting what was said in calm balance.

One day Jenks telephoned her and said, "I'm having some of our district managers in for a convention tomorrow. I'll be there. I'll be in the department men to be here. And I'd like to have you there at lunch. Call me."

"Fine," Judy said. "I'll be there."

"Fine." The Blackstone, then, 1115 So. Superior.

Spending some of the money that came so easily now and seemed so much little. A new dress. As she tried on the new dress she remembered talking about this same model when she gave the salesgirl her name and girl stared suddenly. "Miss Albin?"

"Why don't you say the real thing?"

holding his arm tightly. A—Judy fought back the words but they were not meant for her. She knew that the girl who used to be dark and turned platinum blond overnight. A giggling girl, and Dick had hated gigglers. But now—

She learned much more about Dick Mason's triumphant return, and that he was a success. He had been so fast in the world which people make out of a radio station. And this was big news to all the little girls who had been so frustrated to have no chance to do what Dick Mason had done.

She was seated with Tanko. With Flavia: That's true. Really, with Judy's suggestion, but nobody had told Dick that, and Judy never could tell him. So he had to find out that the way to get out of the situation in Cleveland was to go back to the city. Columbus City Federation Plays Host to Clubwomen This Week

BY BESSIE S. STAFFORD, Editor of Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs Official Page in The Constitution.

COLUMBUS, Ga., May 2.—The Columbus City Federation of Women's Clubs is today the host of clubwomen from all over the state, who are gathered here for the annual meeting of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, which opens today at the Hotel Richmond.

Unusual interest centers in the 1932 convocation, because of the fact that the city of Columbus, which occupies a conspicuous place in the history of Georgia, was the site of the first convention of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, held in 1898, at the Hotel Richmond.

Another happy selection on Tuesday's opening program is that of Mrs. Price Gilbert, of Atlanta, who will respond to the address of welcome, as Columbus was her home for such a long period, that it will seem like giving as well as receiving welcome. She is secretary of the board of trustees of Tallulah Falls school.

State President, Mrs. S. V. Sanford, of Athens, the state president, will extend greetings to the assembly and will be introduced by Mrs. Evelyn McLaughlin McGee, official hostess. The program will be led by Mrs. J. Nunnally Johnson, chairman of pages, followed by standard bearers, escort to the colors, Eagle Scouts, hosts and hostesses, local speakers, distinguished guests, state president, and the pages to the state president, including Mrs. Joseph McGee, Jr., of Columbus, and Miss Barbara King, of Fort Benning, daughter of General Campbell King, U. S. A., and Mrs. King, who has often visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell King, in Atlanta.

The salute to the flag, always an impressive ceremony, especially when participated in by hundreds of delegates, will be led by Mrs. S. M. Inman, of Atlanta, and greetings will be extended by H. C. Smith, hostess of the Columbus City Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney, for the women's patriotic organizations; General Campbell King, U. S. A., for Fort Benning, and Willie Battle, for American Legion.

In the notable company of distinguished guests seated on the platform will be Mrs. Francis Brown Chase, Atlanta, vice president National Daughters American Colonists; Miss Ruth Blair, Atlanta, historian Rhodes Memorial; Dr. Rice Robinson, Anderson, Macon, president Wesleyan College; Judge and Mrs. D. B. Russell, Atlanta; Dr. and Mrs. Mel L. Duggan, Atlanta; Dr. and Mrs. Guy Wells, South Georgia College, College Park, Ga.; Dr. and Mrs. Willis A. Sutton, Atlanta; Dr. and Mrs. J. R. McCain, Athens, president, Georgia State Teachers' College; Dr. Harry W. Cox, Atlanta, president Emory University; Colonel Sandy Bevers, Gainesville, president, Riverside Military Academy; Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Snelling, Athens, Dr. S. V. Sanford, Athens, president University of Georgia, and Mrs. and Mrs. Julian Harris, of Atlanta.

Convention headquarters will be established at Hotel Raleigh, where the credentials committee headed by its chairman, Mrs. Rufus Turner, of Athens, will register delegates and visitors, assisted by Mrs. G. V. Cate, of Brunswick; Mrs. L. A. Collier, of Barnesville, and Mrs. W. W. Stark, of Commerce, assisted by the Columbus committee, of which Mrs. Rhodes Browne is chairman, and Mesdames James J. Gilbert, Mark Sternberg, George S. Murray, William del Worsey, J. L. Shoop. Registration of visitors: Mesdames J. M. Murrah and Max Douthett.

Hospitality Dispensed. Led by Mrs. Evelyn McLaughlin McGee, the popular president, hospitality will be dispensed by officers of Columbus City Federation and the chairmen of arrangements including Mesdames J. T. Fletcher, T. C. Hudson, W. B. Slade, Charles Hunt, John Murrah, Irwin Rothchild, Rhodes Browne, George Burrus, T. C. Hudson, C. L. Mullins, J. T. Fletcher, Homer Dimon, Dixon Smith, Mark Sternberg, R. H. Brown, George Burrus, Jr., Tom Reid, Grace Wade, J. W. Schuessler, W. B. Langston, Tom Hudson, J. A. Thrash, J. H. Rothchild, James W. Callaway, Edgar Chancellor, Foster Harley, Charlton Battle, Dave Green-tree, Mercer Blanchard, C. H. Tigner, K. D. White, C. C. Colbert, Rolo Brown, Kierse, W. J. Fox, and Misses Latimer Watson and Julia Traylor.

Mrs. J. Nunnally Johnson is chairman of pages and Mrs. Joseph McGee, of Columbus, and Miss Barbara King, of Fort Benning, daughter of General Campbell E. King, U. S. A., and Mrs. King, will act as pages for Mrs. S. V. Sanford, state president. The local pages include Mesdames Rex Levenson, Malcolm McKinnon, Bass Lewis, W. B. Rainey, F. E. Gaillard, Lawrence Petri, Frank Bradford, Jack Pissaliquie, Jacques Rothchild, Walter Smith, Mark Sternberg, J. E. Hull and Misses Elizabeth Fort, Sarah Bussey, Inez Rothchild and Dorothy White. The Georgia library commission will stage an exhibit under the supervision of Miss Beverly Wheatcroft, executive secretary, and Mrs. J. W. Gholston, of Comer, state chairman of library extension, in the Sunday school room of First Baptist church.

The committee on nominations will make its report Thursday morning, May 5, and on that day election of officers will be held from 10 to 2 o'clock, unless otherwise ordered. Report of chairman of tellers will be made.

The "live-at-home" gospel has its best exponent at Tallulah Falls Industrial school, owned and operated by Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs. Last summer the students picked 18 bushels of peanuts from vines which came from the planting of one bushel of peanuts given by an Albany friend.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

"There are some of us mothers-in-law that live happily with our daughters and their husbands," protests a reader of this column, "please give us a kind word occasionally." The point to be made here is that such a partnership is not a matter of course. A woman that is so self-contained and self-controlled and so clever that she can find a welcome in her daughter's home and at the same time make herself "persona grata" to her son-in-law does need to be memorialized and advertised but she doesn't need to be sympathized with.

In some inexplicable manner she has learned how to reverse the experience of a lifetime. After having been wife and mother, responsible for her family, tutor to her children, adviser to her husband, head of the firm we call the family, final court of appeal for the solution of every vexatious problem that faced husband and children, after she has filled all these offices for the best part of her life, she is able to reverse herself and become as a little child, seen but not heard.

She has learned not to interfere with any domestic matter in the home that is hers, yet not hers, learned not to interfere with the discipline of the grandchildren that are hers, yet not hers. She has mastered the art of acting in and is able to disguise the natural resentment at any injustice that her in-law inflicts upon her own flesh and blood. She has schooled herself never to enter into any breach that may occur between the husband and wife, regardless of where the blame lies. She has made an agreement never to criticize her daughter-in-law for extravagant expenditures of her son's money and never to criticize her son-in-law for inconsiderate treatment of her daughter. She has not invaded the privacy of the husband and wife and she has made it a practice to spend a large part of her time away from them yet always be ready to answer their call for help. She has assured the children, darning the stockings, given advice when it was asked but never gratuitous advice. She has kept abreast of the times and linked herself, in sympathetic thought, with the second and third generation.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:
How I do sympathize with those who write to your column complaining that they have to share their homes with outsiders! For a long time I have had to share mine with another, not a relative. Another person in the home, makes such a difference! Mine hardly seems like home to me. Can't you say a word to these people who are thinking of breaking up their homes and moving in with other families? Such an experiment spells the end of happiness for some poor woman. We want our husbands and our children to ourselves, we women do. We have the right to expect it, yet how few of us realize the expectation. When your own mother or your husband's mother is destitute, there is no other way out than for her to live with you. But from my observation I would say that nine times out of ten the persons that make their homes with relatives and friends are not destitute, but they simply prefer that mode of life because it leaves them free from responsibility. I suppose it is evident that I am sore. I may not be able to help myself but I am writing this letter in the hope of helping somebody else. H.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:
I would like to claim the honor of being the man that told the first mother-in-law joke. I am not, but I am the man that keeps the ball rolling. I have been collecting jokes on mothers-in-law for ten years and telling them every chance I get. One reason I tell them is because they make me M. I. L. furious. She foams at the mouth when she sees one coming her way. When she files at me I tell her not to roll. I have been observing I would say that nine times out of ten the persons that make their homes with relatives and friends are not destitute, but they simply prefer that mode of life because it leaves them free from responsibility. I suppose it is evident that I am sore. I may not be able to help myself but I am writing this letter in the hope of helping somebody else. H. L. F.

Culbertson on Contract

A Study in Psychology

BY ELY CULBERTSON.
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

There are two elements which enter into the bidding of a hand at Bridge: The first, which is constant, and which is the base of all sound contract bidding, is the honor content of the hand—the question of the number of honor-tricks held, wauco, of course, is modified by the distribution of the suits in the hand; the second, and perhaps equally important, is the study of the psychology of partners and opposing players.

Hand No. 16—the grand finale of the World Bridge Olympic, participated in by more than 30,000 players in all parts of the world—was a simple study in psychology. South, the dealer, was given the cards to justify a minimum Opening bid. West, the second player, was given that dream of all Contract players—"The Perfect Hand." North was given a hand strong alike in honor cards and distribution. East was the only player who was a spectator at the spectacular bidding which generally followed this unusual distribution.

The East and West pair on this hand, fixed by the Committee of the National Bridge Association, was any score playing the hand at hearts. The North and South pair was seven no-trump bid and made in case the overcalled South's Opening bid with seven hearts. If West did not bid seven hearts, immediately, par for the course, South was seven hearts, doubled and made by opponents.

The hand was:
South—Dealer.
East—West vulnerable.

(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)
South West North East
1 ♠ (1) 2 NT (2) Pass
Pass Pass

1—West should not bid his lay-down Grand Slam immediately, as it will be an overbid, and opponents of his probable holding and will tempt them to defend. From his hand, a Defensive bid of seven spades is by no means improbable, and, consequently, he should make some other declaration, pass probably being the best.

2—When West bids seven hearts, vulnerable, North can make the definite inference that he has a 13-card heart suit. South cannot have a trick in hearts. On his Opening bid he is, therefore, definitely marked with the club Ace, and, consequently, if West has a card of any other suit in his hand, it must be a loser. As East can have none of his partner's suit to lead, the bid of seven no-trump is safe. If West does not bid seven hearts immediately, it will be impossible for North to draw this inference; consequently, he will be forced to bid seven diamonds, eventually and to double the bid of seven hearts.

This hand afforded many players opportunities for most unusual bidding. Playing at the Cavendish Club, in New York, one South player opened the bidding with one club. Mr. Oswald Jacoby, who has a reputation for having the unusual and spectacular in bidding, decided to overcall this bid with one diamond. Seated North was a player who appreciated fully Mr. Jacoby's bidding antics on unusual distribution, and he determined to make the bid of two hearts. East, of course, passed, and South, under the impression that Mr. Jacoby had bid two diamonds, passed North's bid. In consequence, the North player and the doubtful satisfaction of playing a lay-down Grand Slam in no-trump at a two-heart declaration and seeing one of her opponents win all the tricks.

This was not nearly as spectacular, however, as the treatment given this hand by Mr. Edward Hynes at the Deschamps Club, in New York. South opened the bidding with one club. West overcalled with two hearts, and Mr. Hynes, sitting North, bid six hearts. South, in turn, bid seven hearts, and Mr. Hynes, sending out the strongest of "Save, Save, Save" calls, redoubled East. South and West passed in turn, and then West, of course, took all the tricks.

Many players, however, through experience, have been able to arrive at the correct contract, which was seven hearts, doubled by West, provided he did not disclose the nature of his holding with an immediate overcall of seven hearts, or seven no-trump for North and South if West failed to make the bid of seven hearts on the Opening bid of one club.

TODAY'S POINTER.
In the bidding of every hand at Contract, the human equation is paramount. The basic principle of sound bidding is to conceal your strength from your opponents as far as possible and to encourage your partner sufficiently to cause him to respond.

TOMORROW'S HAND.
The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow.

East—Dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

NEW YORK, May 2.—(AP)—The bond market once again viewed the dark side of the investment picture today.

New low averages for the year in corporate categories were recorded.

The average for 60 principal bonds, excluding the federal list, was off 12 1/2 from that of January 1. Trading volume was light, sales totalling only $9,100,000. The governments were only fractionally lower.

The general weakness was attributed to the severe pressure on the principal transportation victims, some of whose lines lost ground on round trips included B. and O., Chesapeake Corporation, Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific and Wash.

There was sympathy with the rails was displayed by the utilities and telephones. Outside of International Telephone, which firmed, other communications were steady.

Heavy trading in the foreign section was in Oriental Development 5 1/2 which gained 2 points on the sale of 233 bonds.

OPPORTUNITIES OF BONDS

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—Opponents of the $2,000,000,000 soldiers' bonus bill concluded their testimony before the house ways and means committee today, and a plea for the stabilization of silver.

Silver also occupied the attention of the senate, where Senator Clegg, Democrat of Ohio, introduced a resolution to authorize the president to accept silver from debtor nations in payment of their obligations.

"The primary object of my resolution," Hayden told the senate, "is to break the deadlock between the gold and silver commodity prices. It would create a market for raw materials in India, China, Mexico and other countries."

Dr. A. E. Goldenweiser, economist for the federal reserve system, opposed the Patman bill on the grounds that it would force the reserve policy to that of 50 years ago. "Artificially created reserves would not aid but would curtail the influence of the gold standard," he said.

"Of all financial dangers, that of hoarding gold would be the greatest," Goldenweiser said.

Goldenweiser's currency is not in 600 million dollars of federal reserve notes, and that the whole system would be upset by the addition of $2,000,000,000 in currency.

CONCRETE TESTIMONY

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(AP)—Opponents of the $2,000,000,000 soldiers' bonus bill concluded their testimony before the house ways and means committee today, and a plea for the stabilization of silver.

Silver also occupied the attention of the senate, where Senator Clegg, Democrat of Ohio, introduced a resolution to authorize the president to accept silver from debtor nations in payment of their obligations.

"The primary object of my resolution," Hayden told the senate, "is to break the deadlock between the gold and silver commodity prices. It would create a market for raw materials in India, China, Mexico and other countries."

NEW YORK, May 2.—(AP)—The Southern Pacific railway lines and affiliated companies disclose in their report for 1931 that operating expenses were reduced by $3,936,312, or 19.15 per cent, during the year.

The company's share of the capital stock outstanding, compared with $25,000,000 in 1930, was $25,000,000. Total operating income aggregated $21,000,000, or $4.32 per share, compared with $20,000,000, or $4.00 per share, in 1930. Total operating income aggregated $21,000,000, or $4.32 per share, compared with $20,000,000, or $4.00 per share, in 1930.

The company's freight revenues decreased $40,948,459, or 24.25 per cent, from $1,670,000,000 in 1930 to $1,629,051,541 in 1931. Passenger revenues dropped $9,870,121, or 25.12 per cent, from $38,000,000 in 1930 to $28,129,879 in 1931.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—(AP)—The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has decided to discontinue the qualified approval of birth control contained in its "marriage commission" report.

The report, which was adopted last year, contained a statement that the church "qualifiedly approved" birth control. The new report, however, states that the church "does not approve" birth control.

The decision was made by the General Assembly of the church, which met in Philadelphia last week. The assembly was composed of representatives from all over the United States.

The decision was a significant one, as it marked a change in the church's official position on birth control. It also reflected the growing concern of many church members about the moral implications of birth control.

—and parents, too! Drop a card or letter to The Feature Editor of The Constitution, stating whether you like this strip and care to have it continued.

Based on the Stories by L. Frank Baum

Tip was well soaked and dripping water from every angle of his body, but he managed to lean forward and about 5 feet of the saw-horse. "Keep still, you fool!" The horse at once ceased struggling and floated calmly upon the surface, its wooden body being as buoyant as a raft. "What there was no reply. By this time the horse had reached the word 'fool' meant," muttered the boy. "It is a term of reproach," answered Tip, somewhat ashamed of the expression. "I only use it when I am angry."

"Then it pleases me to be able to call you a fool in return," said the horse. "I did not make the river, nor put it in our way, so a term of reproach is fit for one who becomes angry with me." "You are right," said Tip. "I apologize. Are you all right, Jack?" he asked the Pumphkin horse. But the Scarecrow was not there, however damaged, while the pumpkin head that was so necessary to Jack's existence was missing.

The Scarecrow fell to the ground with a muffled sound. His head was so damp and limp that the weight of his crown crushed his pointed face until it looked exactly like a Japanese pug dog. Tip would have laughed—had he not been so anxious about his man, Jack, who still sat upon the wooden horse. But the Scarecrow was not there, however damaged, while the pumpkin head that was so necessary to Jack's existence was missing.

Tip seized a long pole that, fortunately, lay near at hand and anxiously turned toward the river. Far out upon the water he sighted the golden boat of the pumphkin, which bobbed up and down with the motion of the waves. At that moment it was quite out of Tip's reach, but after a time it floated nearer and still nearer until the boy was able to reach it with his pole and draw it to the shore.

NEW RAGLAN SLEEVES.

Pattern 2335.

Two very good reasons for the very smart effect on an otherwise very simple frock, are the raglan sleeves and the pert tie ends. Red and white flat crepe made the frock, blue ribbon made the trimming. The result was charming. Just as attractive in lawn, voile, canton or sheer crepe. The tie pulls through a slash in the bodice and may be tied in a bow if desired.

Pattern 2335 is obtainable only in sizes 14 to 20 and 32 to 40. Size 16 requires 3 1/4 yards of 38-inch fabric, 2 1/4 yards of 4-inch ribbon. Send fifteen cents (15c) coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style. Be sure to state size wanted.

Your summer wardrobe can be planned easily and inexpensively with the assistance of our current 32-page Fashion Catalog. The best of the season's afternoon, sports and evening frocks, lingerie, house dresses and kiddies' models all personally chosen by Lillian Mae, available through this beautiful book. Send for your copy today. Price of catalog, 15 cents.

Baltimore Voters
Kill Blue Laws

BALTIMORE, May 2.—(AP)—Baltimore, by the largest vote ever given a question or a candidate, today repealed its 200-year-old Sunday observance laws, which even precluded a man's kissing his wife on the Sabbath.

By a majority of more than 83,000, the city wiped off its books the Sunday laws which were born with the Maryland legal code when the Calverts founded the state, and for the first time, can go to moving picture shows, sports events, and make certain retail purchases legally next Sunday.

The victory for the liberal forces marked the close of a fight which has been waged for the last 25 years by the city against the conservative county electorate.

Every session of the state legislature for the last 20 years has had a bill introduced seeking to give to the Maryland legal code when the Calverts founded the state, and for the first time, can go to moving picture shows, sports events, and make certain retail purchases legally next Sunday.

Once before the enabling act was passed, but was ruled off the ballot by the state's court of appeals.

5th Ward Aspirants in 'Hot Water'; Rogers Home in Doubt; Childs Sued

Two "first offense" entries into politics Monday tasted the perennial vicissitudes of fifth ward councilmanic candidates.

Dr. W. T. Rogers will fight it out before the voters of that ward regarding his legal residence, the subcommittee of the democratic executive committee ruled Monday night, although the committee expressed the opinion that he still lives at 1222 Boulevard, N. E., the thirteenth ward, instead of at his hospital, 536 Marietta street.

Dr. Charles W. Childs earlier in the day was made a defendant in a $50,000 allegation of affection suit brought by H. N. Stow, who attend her funeral tonight (Tuesday) at 8 p. m. from Butler Street M. E. church. The remains will be taken by motor Wednesday morning to Newburn, Ga., for interment. Hanley Co.
